Kelly's Notes:

- Storytime was a success. A total of 170 people entered our building throughout the last 6 weeks for Storytime events. It's a really nice environment to see young families. People are really grateful for what we do. This tells us taxpayers feel good about what we offer.
- Chakota Storytime on April 4th. 28 adults and 38 children attended. We teamed up with Kaye Langenhorst for this event.
- Laminator heat element went out - took 2 service calls to fix
- The Cloud Library app is acting up. App developers working on the problem and hope to fix the bugs soon.
- Parking lot grates finished
- Magazine room furniture to be delivered in May
- At the May meeting, we will need the mayor to appoint trustees who are up for Oath of Office:
Mary Hereen, Jean Steinman, and Angie Becker

Raises

- Please take into consideration the inflation costs of everyday products like milk for instance... for the employees who rely on the library as their first and only income.
- Youth Services Librarian position viewed differently and valued differently than Library Clerk.
Requires a different skill set
